Employment Policies:
NSF(2011-12) and Stanford

- NSF(2011-12): Reasonable amount of teaching or similar activity that enhances education and training of Fellows. Must focus on Fellow’s own education and training, and not on service to the University.

- Stanford: Students on full fellowships limited to 8 hrs/wk of hourly employment, max 25% RA/TA, or hourly and RA/TA combined limited to 8 hours.

• Supplemental Pay form completed by Fellow on tenure describes paid activity and how it benefits the Fellow’s educational objectives, and provides teaching or other experience. Signed by Fellow and advisor at least one week before start of paid activity.

• NSF employment guidelines for 2012-13 not known

NSF-Other Changes

• Starting in 2012 Academic/Research Advisor must review Fellow’s Activities Report, and certify progress to degree.

• Fellows awarded in 2011 and after may not accept another federal fellowship along with the NSF GRF.

• 3 units in summer confirmed okay by NSF.
NSF Tuition Shortfalls

- NSF - $10,500 tuition allowance for all
- Formula Schools
  - School of Medicine
  - GSB
- Non-Formula Schools
  - 35% tuition
  - Provost’s Designated Funds/GF
  - School, department or advisor responsibility

Chart shows percent of 8-10 unit tuition charge paid by School or department.
Both FY13 examples assume Provost’s Designated Funds /GF supplement remains at $5,500.
Far right FY13 illustrates change if NSF tuition allowance increases to $12,000, as suggested by NSF (if budget allows).
